Easter Bunny brings fun and festivities to El Mirage

(El Mirage Firefighter Ryan Riser, the Easter Bunny, and Firefighter Jonny Weber)

[El Mirage, AZ April 3, 2013] – Over 750 residents and neighbors attended the El Mirage Easter Eggstravaganza this past weekend. More than 3500 eggs were hid and found by local youth as they hunted in various age categories. For each age category, one lucky winner found the egg that contained the golden ticket that won a prize of a giant Easter basket. Over 150 families and children took their picture with the Easter Bunny, free of charge.

The event was sponsored by Parks & Sons, supported by Pratt's Pets who brought a petting zoo, and Hickman Farms donated 675 eggs for egg coloring fun. Bikers Against Child Abuse (BACA) helped hide eggs and had a booth at the event to promote the group's cause. Overall, the event was a huge success and made possible with the support of sponsors and volunteers. Pictures taken at the event are now available for download at cityofelmirage.org/Easter2013.
